Theatre Guidelines

I sit on a floor cushion or a chair.

Or

I can touch objects when they are offered to me, or I can say no thank you.

I watch and listen to the show.

What to do if I don't feel good

1. Entering the performance room

An actor will give me an egg-shaped lamp. I can keep it with me during the show. I will follow the actors into the performance room. I can sit on a round floor cushion or a chair.

2. The Egg-shaped lamps

Two actors with egg-shaped lamps will come toward me to say hello.

I can tell them my name if I want.

3. The mama bird

The mama bird puppet will calmly wake up.

She will fly above me.

I can touch her wings as they pass by me.

4. The rain.

The actors will unroll a large plastic sheet.

They will spray a little bit of water on it.

They can spray a little bit of water on me, or I can say no thank you.

or

5. The bees

The bees will invite me to play with them on round green circles. I can stand up, or I can remain seated.

or

6. The caterpillars

The caterpillar puppets will dance. They will come close to me.

The caterpillar puppet can climb onto me, or I can say no thank you.

or

7. The millipede

The actors will offer me colored sticks. They will invite me to play music with them. I can take a stick and make music, or I can say no thank you.

or

8. The night

The actors will show me a moon and its stars.

The light can come close to me, or I can say no thank you.

or

9. The Didgeridoo

I will hear the didgeridoo instrument vibrate.

10. The baby birds

The baby bird puppets will sing. They will come close to me.

I can touch and play with the baby birds, or I can say no thank you.

or

11. The birds take flight

At the end of the show, the mama bird puppet will come to see her babies.

I can applaud if I want.

12. Exiting with the mama bird and baby birds. When the show is over, I will leave the performance room. Someone will give me a paper beak. I can bring the paper beak back to school and home.

It is time to say goodbye.
